Curatorial Projects (selected)

2023 more-than-human, Onsite Gallery, Toronto, ON. CA.

A group exhibition of media artworks at the intersection of art, science, indigenous world views and technology that focus specifically on understanding and unpacking the complexity of the more-than-human mind. Selected artworks will broadly invite the viewer/participant into interactive, media, or sensory experiences that have the potential to expand ones understanding and acceptance of what constitutes intelligence, sentience, and agency. Selected artists include Ursula Biemann, Grace Grothaus, Lindsey French, Dolleen Tisawii'ashii Manning + Mary Bunch, Suzanne Morissette, Joel Ong, Rasa Smite & Raitis Smits, and Jane Tingley with Faadhi Fauzi and Ilze (Kavi) Briede.

This project includes curated events under the title Re-Situating: more-than-human at Onsite Gallery, the Field's Institute (Toronto), High Park (Toronto) and the rare Charitable Reserve (Cambridge). Events included Artist Panel Discussion Part 1 & 2 (Onsite Gallery), ArtSci Panel Discussions (Field's Institute): 1) On Ethics of Care (Dr. Keiko Yoshioka, Grace Grothaus, Karine Gagné), and 2) Ecology, Symbiosis and human/plant Relations (Dr Andrew Trant, Dr. Dolleen Tishawii'ashii Manning, Dr. Lindsey French), Multiplicities and Plurality Curatorial Walkthrough with Dr. Karen Houle (Onsite Gallery), Expanded Poetry Night with poets Dr. Madhur Anand, Dr. Karen Houle and Liz Howard with projection mapping by Ilze Briede [Kavi] (Field's Institute), on-line Screening of Forest Mind including interview with Ursula Biemann, a daylong Field trip to rare Charitable Reserve (Cambridge) including a panel and workshops (Grace Grothaus, Sumia Ali, Dr. Marissa Davies, Dr. Alice Jarry), and Guided Nature and Forest Therapy Walk (Lisa Smith and Vivian Bird) at High Park (Toronto).

2020 Agents for Change | Facing the Anthropocene, Co-Curator: Nina Czegledy. THEMUSEUM, Kitchener, ON CA. Agents for Change is an exhibition that brings together contemporary media projects on the theme of environmental change. The artists selected are all women from Canada and abroad. The selected works critically and poetically investigate our present, interrogate the cultural associations linked to how we think about the land we live on, speculate about future realities, and also suggest solutions for how we might approach life in the Anthropocene. Selected Canadian artists include Diane Landry (QC), Donna Legault (ON), Maayke Schurer (ON), Liz Miller (QC) and Elaine Whittaker (ON). The international artists are Kristine Diekman (USA), Olga Kisseleva (FR/RU) and Pinar Yoldas (TR/USA), as well as artist duos Caroline McCaw and Vicki Smith (NZ), and Rasa Smite and Raitis Smits (LV).

2018 INTERACTION, Co-Curator: Alain Thibault. THEMUSEUM, Kitchener, ON. CA.

INTERACTION is an exhibition that explores how Canadian artists and designers are engaging the public through interactivity. The works in this show invite critical reflection by engaging the body and the mind, with playful and open-ended encounters, sensorially rich experiences, and immersive environments. Exhibited Artists: Adam Basanta, Andrew J. Milne, Daniel Iregui, David Rokeby, François Quevillion, Jenn E. Norton, Jessica Thompson, Kokoromi, Matthew Biederman and Pierce Warnecke, Myriam Bleau, Projet Eva, Rafael Lozano-Hemmer, Steve Daniels and Ying Gao.

2014 Hedonistika, Co-Curator: Simon Laroche. Musée d'art contemporain, Mtl, QC. CA.

Co-produced by Elektra Festival in Montréal, QC and monochrom in Vienna, AT. Hedonistika is an exhibition and panel multi-modal brought together food scholars, artists, and roboticists to examine the innumerable (and often hidden) ways in which technology and food are related. Participating artist teams: Simon Laroche/David Szanto, Stefani Bardin/ Dr. Brad Kuo, and Natalie Doonan/Ken Gregory.
